

Drunk Girl – Chris Janson

Couple cover charge stamps got her hand looking like a rainbow
In and out of every bar on a whim just like the wind blows
She's either a bachelorette or coming off a breakup
Take a drunk girl home
She's bouncing like a pinball - singing every word she never knew
Dancing with her eyes closed like she's the only one in the room
Her hair is a perfect mess, falling out of that dress
Take a drunk girl home

Take a drunk girl home, let her sleep all alone
Leave her keys on the counter, your number by the phone
Pick up her life she threw on the floor
Leave the hall lights on, walk out and lock the door ...
That's how she knows the difference between a boy and man
Take a drunk girl home ...

You leave her drive for a dive and you get something bad to eat
They're singing "Closing Time" at that little bar across the street
In two by twos, strangers and lovers headed for the covers, hooking up
... ..

That TV in your two bedroom sounds turned off
And through the paper-thin walls, you can hear the neighbor's cigarette cough
There's a million things you could be doing, but there's one thing
You're damn sure glad you did

Chorus

You took a drunk girl home, in the sober light of dawn / She left you a message, she thanked you on the phone
'Cause you picked up her life she threw on the floor / You left the hall lights on, walked out and locked the door
That's how she knows the difference between a boy and man / Take a drunk girl home

You take a drunk girl home / Take a drunk girl home ...
